Education during 1958-59.

Government of Maharashtra,
Education and Social Welfare Department,
Resolution No. SFC 2258-D
Secretaries Annex, Bombay-37
15th June 1958.

Re: Letter No. 101/528-T, dated 21st April 1958 from the Director of Education, M.S., Poona.

Resolution: It has been decided by Government that in every District in the State there should be at least one College of Education (Secondary Training College). At present only the Districts of Nanded, Parbhani, Buldhana, Yestmal and Kolaba do not have a College of Education. With a view to providing Colleges of Education in these Districts it has been decided as under:-

(A) The Graduate Basic Training Centre, Dhulia should be shifted from the current academic year (i.e. 1958-59) and it should be established as a Government College of Education at Parbhani providing courses leading to B.L. degree. The furniture etc. of the Centre should also be shifted to Parbhani. The existing posts at the Government Basic Training College, Dhulia which should continue after the shifting of the Centre and its re-establishment as Government College of Education at Parbhani, the posts to be abolished and posts to be newly created upto 28th February 1959 in the first instance, as also provisions for T.A. and contract and non-contract contingencies at the disposal of the College of Education of Parbhani are indicated in Appendix A. The Government College of Education, Parbhani should be accommodated in the existing building of the Government Junior College of Education so as to develop it into a comprehensive College of Education. The existing post of the Principal, Government Junior College of Education, Parbhani should be held in abeyance until further orders. Section is also accorded to the expenditure of Rs. 3,000/- (Rs. Three thousand only) on account of the shifting of the Graduate Basic Training Centre, Dhulia to Parbhani.)

(B) (1) The Government Junior College of Education, Sai, Dist. Satara, Government Additional Junior College of Education for Men, Aravati and Government Additional Junior College of Education for Women, Aravati should be closed down from the academic year 1958-59 and instead, three new Government Colleges of Education should be established respectively at Nanded, Buldhana and Yestmal from the academic year 1958-59. The furniture etc. at the three Junior Colleges of Education should be shifted to the new places for the use of the Colleges of Education as under:-
